Hopper's 4-H Club News

Derek A. Cosner, Reporter

The Hopper's Club met January 8, 2023 at the Friendsville Senior Center. The day began with a puppet show put on by Rush Baptist Church. The play was called "Ask the Animals." When the play was over the Pastor and his band had some special music, and light refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The Club Officers were installed. The theme was an airline flight. Flight 2023-4-H Special, and each person was given a small plane. New Officers are as follows: Isabel Whiteside, President, Ava E. Cosner, Vice President, Julia Reckart, Secretary, Jeremy Gordon, Treasurer, Bristal Ketterman and Ava E. Cosner, Photographers and Derek A. Cosner, Reporter. Derek and his mom, Brenda E. Skipper were thanked for having news reports 100% of 2022. Clover Leader Becky Tasker was thanked along with leaders Darlene and Rachel Schmidt. There were 16 members and 14 volunteers present for this and many others present for the puppet show and music.

Awards were given for attendance. Bristal Ketterman had 100% attendance, Isabel and Noah Whiteside and Derek and Ava Cosner only missed one meeting, Jacob Vose and Elizabeth Zimmerman only missed 2 and finally Julia Reckart, Jeremy and Maddox Gordon only missed 3 for the year of 2022. Top fundraisers in 2022 were Isabel and Noah Whiteside coming in first, Derek and Ava Cosner in second and Julia Reckart in third.

All the members, volunteers and leaders were thanked for a great year and the schedule was gone over for 2023. There are plans for rabbit shows and other fun events this year.

The winners of the Christmas Breakfast Basket were drawn and winners will be contacted. We thank all the people who donated to the baskets and those who purchased tickets. Our next meeting will be held February 19, 2023 at 3pm at the Friendsville Senior Center. HOP HOP HOP on over, we'd love to see you!
