Maryland 4-H School Enrichment

4-H school enrichment utilizes curriculum that is grounded in university research-driven programs, allowing your school to engage in learning activities that enhance the core curriculum standards and objectives.

4-H
- Is nationally recognized in youth development and education
- Receives strong local, state and national support
- Provides easy to use research-based experiential curriculum materials
- Has professional trained faculty and staff through the University of Maryland
- Has successful partnerships worldwide!

4-H School Enrichment Signature Programs
- Science, Engineering, Technology, Math (STEM)
- Healthy Living
- Workforce Readiness
- Science of Maryland Agriculture

The University of Maryland is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Equal Access Programs.

4-H School Enrichment Signature Programs
- Science, Engineering, Technology, Math (STEM)
- Healthy Living
- Workforce Readiness
- Science of Maryland Agriculture

The University of Maryland is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Equal Access Programs.
Health Rocks!® is curricula for a healthy living program targeted at young people ages 8 to 14. Teen and adult facilitators share hands-on activities that educate youth on the consequences of tobacco, alcohol and drug use. Analysis from 2011 shows that the Health Rocks! program was highly successful in educating youth.¹

¹Sourced from National 4H Council – http://www.4-h.org/youth-development-programs/

Frederick County Office
330 Montevue Lane
Frederick, MD 21702
301-600-1589
http://frederick.umd.edu

Donielle Axline
4-H Educator
301-600-1590
dinskeep@umd.edu

Samantha Murdock
4-H FEA
301-600-3583
smurdock@umd.edu