ATTENTION GARDENERS!

The Montgomery County Master Gardeners are holding their 14th Annual Spring Gardening Conference in Derwood, MD, on Saturday, February 22, 2014 (Snow Date is March 1).

ROOTING FOR THE FUTURE

New ideas + small changes = Gardening success!

Registration information can be found at: http://goo.gl/i4nalm

The day-long event, from 8:30 am – 2:30 pm, offers multiple workshops, morning snacks, a delicious bag lunch, door prizes, networking with other gardeners, answers to your gardening questions, handouts, and reference materials. Participants can attend three of nine concurrent workshops, all taught by Master Gardeners. This year’s topics include dealing with deer, four season gardening, orchids, mint family plants, root vegetables, beekeeping and much more, plus several lunchtime presentations. For additional information, email MCMGConference@gmail.com

This conference will be held at the University of Maryland Extension, Montgomery County Office, 18410 Muncaster Rd, Derwood, MD, at the Agricultural History Farm Park.

Advance registration is $55; bring a friend and the cost is $100 for two. The registration deadline is February 18, 2014. Space is limited and workshops will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Montgomery County Master Gardeners is a program of the University of Maryland Extension. They provide free, environmentally friendly gardening advice to the public, including a “Helpline” consultation by phone (301-590-9650) or email mgmont@umd.edu. Please check out our website at http://www.extension.umd.edu/mg/locations/montgomery-county-master-gardeners for more descriptions of our programs.

The University of Maryland programs are open to any person and will not discriminate against anyone because of race, age, sex, color, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, religion, ancestry or national origin, marital status, genetic information, political affiliation, and gender identity or expression.