Tables 9:00am - 1:30pm

- Welcome
- MG Shoppe
  Selling supplies, herbs, plants and more!
- Seed Swap Drop Off
  until 10:30, so you can join in the Swap.

At The Garden 9:00am - 1:30pm

- Master Gardener Tool Table
  Learn how to keep your tools in top condition.
- Plant a Row for the Hungry
  Grow a little extra, donate to Manna Food Center.
- Seeds
  Learn germination and planting techniques.
- Building Bamboo Trellises
  Build structures from bamboo and twine.
- Montgomery County Recycling Center
  Pick up a free recycling bin!
- Edible Landscaping
  Buy fruit trees, fruit plants and mushroom spawn
- Conservation Garden
  Find native plants providing for native creatures.
- MC Beekeepers Frame
  See Honey Bees in action, see their products.
- Soil
  Learn how to get healthy soil.
- Straw Bales
  The latest in raised garden beds!
- Composting
  Learn about how to compost and why. Look for demonstrations!
- Beekeepers’ Spoils At the Garden
  Products from our friends, the bees.
- Master Gardener Plant Clinic
  Have any questions about any plants? Ask here.

Speakers 9:30am - 1:30pm

- Vegetable Grafting
  The Vegetable Grafting Classes have preregistration and a fee, but the rest are free!
  http://extension.umd.edu/growit/montgomery-county-vegetable-gardening-classes-and-events

- 9:00- 10:00 in the Kitchen
  Vegetable Grafting
  also at 12:30

- 9:30 - 10:30 in the Garage
  Low Impact Sustainable Fruit
  Chuck Schuster, Senior Agent, UM Extension Agriculture & Natural Resources, Commercial Horticulture
  Learn what types and varieties of fruit can be raised in this region using low impact sustainable methods. Plant spacing, pruning, and methods will be discussed.

- 9:30 - 10:30 in the Conference Room
  Beekeeping, Is It For You?
  Marie Rojas, Master Gardener
  We’ll explore the basics of beekeeping; including bee behavior, types of hives and where to locate them, protective clothing and tools, start up costs, as well as bee-friendly plants and resources.

- 9:30 - 10:30 in the Multi Purpose Room
  Growing Therapeutic Teas for the Home Gardener
  Donna Koczaja, Master Gardener and Master Herbalist
  This class will showcase several easy-to-grow herbs. Growing tips for success, how to harvest and therapeutic properties of each herb will be described. Hands-on class to create and taste your own blend of herbal tea.

- 9:45 - 10:15 in the Multi Purpose Room
  Vines to Wines
  Jan Rieke, Master Gardener
  Have you ever thought about growing grapes so you could make your own wine? This session will walk you through the fundamentals of grape growing and the steps involved in making home wine.

- 10:45 - 11:15 in the Multi Purpose Room
  Vermicomposting, Making and Using a Worm Bin
  Gordon Clark, Master Gardener
  Using a worm bin at home is a fun and easy way to make the richest compost possible using kitchen scraps. Presentation will include all elements of making and maintaining a simple home worm bin.

- 10:45 - 11:45 in the Conference Room
  Mushrooms in the Edible Landscape
  Michael Judd, Author, Landscape Designer
  Explore how growing mushrooms in the edible landscape combines form, function and production. Learn how working with fungi builds soil and increases harvests, even in the shade!

- 12:30 - 1:30 in the Conference Room
  Getting the Most From Your Small Vegetable Garden
  Pam Hosimer & Mary Ann Normile, Master Gardeners
  Do you love veggies but think you have no space to garden? Learn how to grow vegetables in less space than you thought. Get ideas and techniques you can apply at home to get the most out of your small growing area.

- 12:30 - 1:30 in the Conference Room
  Vegetable Grafting
  Steve Dubik, UMD Extension Horticultural Consultant, Professor, Landscape Technology, Montgomery College
  Learn the concept of vegetable grafting – joining two plants to create one. This will be a hands-on event to learn the process. Each participant will graft several tomatoes to take home.