ETHICS

I, the undersigned, certify that:

- I will respect the participants, volunteers and property associated with the Contests.
- I will set a good example as a mentor and role model for 4-H livestock youth and volunteer leaders.
- I will conduct myself and the 4-H livestock programs in a professional and ethical manner.
- I will strive to be knowledgeable of the life skills embodied in the 4-H livestock programs and aid positively in the development of youth through adherence to those principles.
- I will strive to be technically competent in the subject matter I teach, adhering to and following the specific national 4-H livestock guidelines, curriculum, rules and deadlines for each contest entered.
- I will respect the dignity of each participant in the 4-H livestock programs regardless of gender, origin, ability, achievement or conviction.

STATEMENT OF DISCLOSURE

I, the undersigned, certify that:

- I am a Coach representing the above State and for the Contest marked above.
- I have read, and in consideration for being permitted to enter the National 4-H Livestock Contests (the "Event"), agree and consent to abide by the rules as identified in the North American International Livestock Exposition's (NAILE) Premium Book (the "Premium Book"), and the Official Website for the Contests.
- I agree that the entry, contestants and alternates identified in the Entry Form meet the requirements as set forth in the rules; specifically, and especially the Contestants and Eligibility Section.
- I confirm, the entries and contestants identified on the Entry Form were entered in accordance with applicable USDA - National 4-H Regulations.
- If violations of the entry, entry form, contestants, and/or alternates are found and all of the required documents are not submitted and/or fully completed as required, I shall not challenge them other than through any course of action as identified in the rules. I and our team shall be subjected to penalties as determined by the Event's management if violations are detected.
