The University of Maryland Extension programs are open to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, age, religion, disability or national origin. Information provided to UME may be used and shared within UME, the University of Maryland and the University System of Maryland and with outside entities as necessary or appropriate in accordance with applicable law and the mission, purpose and functions of UME and the University. Because the University is a State educational institution, such information may also be subject to disclosure under the Maryland Access to Public Records Act. A person may inspect and/or correct his or her personal information as provided by the Maryland Access to Public Records Act and/or applicable University policy. The purpose of these materials is to enroll all market and commercial animals with the 4-H Tagging Program and to ensure members will receive all materials. By not providing all requested materials, one may not receive all associated materials associated with the project, as well, as not being able to participate in shows in which animals must be tagged with the Maryland 4-H Livestock tag.
