

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report January 22, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor 4-H Club held a meeting on Zoom on January 22, 2021 at 6:36. We welcomed a possible new member to our club, Daisy C. Next, Emmy A said the Pledge of Allegiance and Delia V said the 4-H Pledge. Emmy A also talked about what she was doing with the 4-H State Council. We welcomed our new officers Sarah B. as President, Phoebe-Tate A as vice president, Emmy A as secretary, Trent V as Treasurer, Caroline A as Historian, Delia V as reporter and W. A. as sergeant of arms.

Sarah B reminded us that we need to keep our record books up to date. Then we had Emmy A read the minutes from last meeting and Trent V read the treasurer's report. Next, Sarah B discussed the old business. The beef weigh in was held on January 9th with 16 total steers weighed. Nominations were held for the 2021 National Ag Day Student Leadership Program. We decided to continue our Secret Santa tradition by dropping gifts off at the giftee's house. At the last meeting, we came up with some creative activities for the upcoming year that we are hoping to incorporate into future meetings.

Sarah B discussed our new business. A meeting will be by the 4-H Office to determine what steps we should take in the new year. This is an opportunity for members and parents to establish what goals they would like to achieve in the new year concerning everything from 4-H projects to Diamond Clover activities. This will be held on January 27th from 6:30-7:30 on Zoom. Officer training will be held January 30th from 9-10am on zoom. Please remember to register ahead of time from these activities. Billy Pilkerton, a member of the fair board, sadly passed away, so we decided to send $50 to the Fair Association in memory of him and make cards to send to his family.

We are going to have a goat guest speaker at the next meeting. Our next meeting will be held on February 19th at 6:30 via Zoom. The meeting was adjourned at 6:58. Then we played 4-H Trivia.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report February 19, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall Club 4-H meeting was called to order at 6:34 pm via Zoom. The Pledge of Allegiance was said by W. A. and the 4-H Pledge was said by Matthew V. Next, we welcomed some new members to our club Aynslee L, Avery L, Thad L, Zeke L, and Colby V. Emmy A. discussed what was happening in state council. Then, Emmy A. read the Minutes from last meeting and Trent V. read the Treasurer's Report. We also had a demonstration done by Delia V. on "How to make Protein Balls".

Sarah B. did an ice breaker with us so we can get to know everyone in the club better. Sarah B. then reminded us that it is easier to do your record books as you do everything in 4-H instead of doing it all at the end of the year. Following that, we talked about old business. Under old business we talked about Officer training, Planning your 4-H year, Dairy fun day, 2020 Diamond Clovers and Dog fun day.

Sarah B. did a 'Would you Rather' with us. Following that, we talked about new business: there is a Shooting stars club meeting on Feb 21 at 5 pm via zoom, the virtual banquet is on March 13, a public speaking workshop will be held online on March 15th, state dairy skillathon on March 27 will be held virtually, state dairy bowl on April 17 virtually, state livestock skillathon is on June 19 and will hopefully be held in person in Montgomery County, 2021 Diamond clover form plans are due on March 15, Minecraft virtual activity group starting and they need volunteers and hopefully day camp will be in July!, overnight camp may take place in August! and maybe a possible weekend trip in the fall. Our next meeting will be March 19, 2021 via Zoom. The meeting was adjourned at 7:47 and then we watched a video on Goat Kidding by Rodney Wilson of Wilson Acres in Delaware. He has raised goats since 2008 and has raised both Boers and Dairy Goats.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report March 19, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order at 6:37pm on Zoom. Then, we had Maggie R. say The Pledge of Allegiance and Delia V. say the 4-H Pledge. Next, Caroline A. talked about what had been happening at the state council. Following that we had Emmy A. read us the minutes from last meeting and Trent V. read us the treasurer's report. Delia V. did a demonstration on Sheep Breeds and had a KaHoot to go along with the demo. Matthew V. also had a demonstration, his was on a Lego set of the Golden Gate Bridge that he made.

Under Old Business we had Shooting Sports guest speaker, virtual banquet, the public speaking workshop/contest was postponed to most likely the summer time to be closer to the state contest, 2021 Diamond clover form plans were due, an email was sent out concerning volunteer hours, the record book forms, and diamond clover forms for more information about those projects and the re-enrolling for 4-H and signing up for the broiler chick project forms were due. Under New Business we have The Green Food Challenge, State Dairy Skillathon on March 27 will be held virtually, State Dairy Bowl on April 17 virtually, State Livestock skillathon is on June 19 and will hopefully be held in person in Montgomery County, Alpaca farm trip in hopefully early April, card for Bustin Out of the Barn helpers independent of 4-H, card for virtual auction helpers from 4-H and Delia V. asked if the club would like to do a food drive for helping hands.

We decided that our next meeting will be April 16th, 2021 via zoom. Then we adjourned the meeting at 7:32. Finally we played a game of Name, Place, Animal and Thing where you are told a letter and you have to come up with a name, a place, an animal and a thing that starts with that letter. We also watched a video on How to Draw a Hibiscus Flower.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report April 16, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order on April 16th, 2021 at 6:35 via zoom. We had Caroline A. say the Pledge of Allegiance and Maggie R. say the 4-H pledge. There were three illustrated talks done by Delia V. (Pig Wholesale Cuts), Maggie R. (Legos) and Matthew V. (Legos). Caroline A. gave us a State Council Report. We played a Kahoot on 4-H that was led by Delia V. Next, Emmy A. read the minutes to us and to follow that Trent V. read the Treasurer's Report.

Under old business, we discussed the green food challenge which was open until March 22nd and the State Dairy Skillathon on March 27 which was held virtually. We decided to continue holding business meetings virtually but hold activities in person with approval from the 4-H office. We established we would like to make cards for the Bustin' Out of the Barn helpers, who were independent of 4-H. We also determined we would make a card for the virtual auction helpers from the club.

Under new business we discussed the State Dairy Bowl on April 17 which will be held virtually, the State Livestock Skillathon is on June 19 and will hopefully be held in person in Montgomery County, Broiler chicks will arrive next week, The Horse Communications Contest registration deadline is April 21st, the Launch into Leadership Virtual Event is Saturday, April 24th, the State virtual activity clubs have announced registration for a sewing club, a book club, a historic arts and crafts club, and learning about travel opportunities with 4-H. The Alpaca farm trip will hopefully be in early April and the County Fair is scheduled to happen this year on September 23rd. We adjourned the meeting at 7:42.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report May 21, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order on May 21, 2021 at 7:00 via Zoom and before our meeting we played virtual Charades. We had Levi V. say the Pledge of Allegiance and Maggie R. say the 4-H Pledge. Caroline A. gave us a State Council Report. We played a Kahoot on Livestock, led by Delia V. Next, Emmy A. read the minutes to us and then Trent V. read the Treasurer's Report. We had one demonstration done by Delia V. (Cattle Breeds).

Under old business we discussed that the State Dairy Bowl on April 17 was held virtually. The Horse Communications Contest registration deadline was April 21st. Launch into Leadership Virtual Event- Saturday, April 24th. State virtual activity clubs announced registration for a sewing club, a book club, historic arts and crafts, and learning about travel opportunities with 4-H. Air rifle practice was at the end of April. Ear tags were purchased for livestock animals.

Under New Business, we discussed the weigh in is taking place this Saturday, May 22nd. For the Horse Communications Contest, a 2021 Spring Show will take place in Charles County from June 4 to the 6. Registration is open for the State Livestock skillathon on June 19 and will be held in person in Montgomery County. The Maryland State 4-H office is educating teens in becoming Agriculture Innovators to teach other youth about the program in the summer. On June 28th, a one day event is being held for teenage 4-H members this summer in Carroll County, preparing youth for future college and career goals and expanding available opportunities. You can register at 4-H online for this event. The Maryland 4-H Foundation is offering the opportunity for academic scholarships to Maryland 4-H members and alumni. The entry deadline to apply is June 15th, 2021. St. Mary's 4-H Day Camp will run July 7-9 with limited spots at the Fairgrounds. The County fair is scheduled to happen this year on September 23rd. We adjourned the meeting at 7:38 and our next meeting will be held on June 11th, 2021.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report June 11, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order on June 11th, 2021 at 6:36 via Zoom. We had Matthew V. say the Pledge of Allegiance and Phoebe A say the 4-H pledge. There was no State Council Report. We played a Kahoot on Swine Breeds, led by Delia V. Next, Emmy A. read the minutes to us and then Trent V. read the Treasurer's Report. We had three demonstrations done by Delia V (Swine Breeds), Maggie R (Chicken Breeds) and Ryleigh V (All About Goats).

Under old business we discussed the weigh-in took place on May 22nd. The Southern Maryland 2021 Spring Show took place in Charles County from June 4 to 6. The State 4-H Forestry Contest took place on June 6th at the Frederick County 4-H Camp & Activities Center.

Under new business we discussed the State Livestock skillathon is on June 19 and will be held in person in Montgomery County. The Maryland State 4-H office is educating teens in becoming Agriculture Innovators to teach other youth about the program in the summer. On June 28th, the Teen Leadership Summit will be held for teenage 4-H members this summer in Carroll County, preparing youth for future college and career goals and expanding available opportunities. Members from ages 13-18 can register on 4-H online for this event. Utah's 4-H Remote Skills Camp is a thirty-day camp that prepares teens for future possibilities by practicing work skills and opening the door to questions and answers with remote workers from NASA, Google, and more. The program is open to teens from 15-18. Pennsylvania 4-H is opening a free virtual cooking camp to all families around the country. The registration date for this program is July 14. The Maryland 4-H Foundation is offering the opportunity for academic scholarships to Maryland 4-H members and alumni. The entry deadline to apply is June 15th, 2021. St. Mary's 4-H Day Camp will run July 7-9 with limited spots at the Fairgrounds. The County fair is scheduled to happen this year on September 23rd! Our next meeting will be held in person on July 16th, 2021. The meeting was adjourned at 7:27.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS
Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report
July , 2021
Submitted By:

No Meeting

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report August 13, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4 - H Club was called to order on August 13, 2021. Before the meeting started we worked on our booth and float for the fair. Then we had Phoebe - Tate A. say the Pledge of Allegiance and Maggie R. say the 4 - H Pledge. Emmy A. read the minutes from the last meeting and then Trent V. read the Treasurer's report. Next we had anyone who had a demonstration go and the first person was Matthew V. on his beekeeping and his woodwork on his birdhouse.

Under old business we discussed the State Livestock skillathon, the Teen Leadership Summit was held for teenage 4-H members this summer, Utah's 4-H Remote Skills Camp, Pennsylvania 4-H opened a free virtual cooking camp to all families around the country, the Maryland 4-H Foundation offered the opportunity for academic scholarships to Maryland 4-H members and alumni, St. Mary's 4-H Day Camp was on July 7-9, registration is closed for the county public speaking contest, and the entries for the Horse Visual Arts Contest.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS
Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report
September , 2021
Submitted By:

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m. at the St. Mary's County fairgrounds on September 11, 2021. We had this meeting to finish our booth for the fair. We folded little boxes and had each member draw on a box, what they like to do in 4-H. Then, we stacked the boxes so they would fit into our booth. We all worked together and got our booth finished. We scheduled our next meeting to be on October 22, 2021.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report October 22, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H meeting was called to order on October 22, 2021 at the Fairgrounds. We had Maggie R. lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Kyle R. lead the 4-H Pledge. The roll call question was are you dressing up for Halloween? We had a few demonstrations done. The first one was done by Thomas G. He told us about "Why goat meat is healthier" and "How to have a good goat udder". The next one was done by Emily G. on her experience at the State Communications contest and her experience with Air rifle. Our last demonstration was done by Madison A. on "How to train your dog" and her experience with it. Then, Trent V. read the Treasurer's report to us.

Under old business we discussed that the State Fair was in-person this year, from August 26 through September 4, 2021, the St. Mary's public speaking contest was on August 16, 2021, the county fair was from September 23rd-26, We met in early September to finish our booth, the St. Mary's County public speaking contest happened and the State Public speaking contest was held in early October.

Under new business we discussed our Trunk or Treat that was going to happen after our meeting. We decided to have our next meeting at the fairgrounds on November 19, 2021. The meeting was adjourned and we had our Trunk or Treat around the fairgrounds after our meeting. It was a lot of fun!

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report November 19, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H club's meeting was held on November 19, 2021. Before the meeting we had Trent V. teach us about "Curbing our Carbon Footprints". Then the meeting was called to order at 7:28. We had Emmy A. read the Minutes from the last meeting and Trent V. read the Treasurer's report. Next, we had a few illustrated talks, the first was done by Madison A. on "Caring for Rabbits". Peyton H. did one on "How to trim a goat's hoof" and "The life of a market hog". Sophie W. , Susannah W. and Sam W. did their's on their "Fainting Goats". The next one was done by Trent V. on his shooting sports and hunting experience and Emily G. with a talk about the "Different traits of each breed of dairy goats" and "Meat goat newborn kid care". Jessica G. did one on "What judges look for in market animals", Sarah B. did one on her "Techniques and experience with public speaking" and Phoebe-Tate A. did one on "The different roles of a 4-H club and what you have to do to be an officer for the club".

Under old business we discussed the county Trunk or Treat that we had at our last meeting and we also discussed Emily's Chair Raffle that raised money for the club. Congratulations to Jeanne Williams for winning the chair!

Under new business we discussed Trent and Emily's community service project for the Tri-County Animal Shelter. They are collecting items to donate to the animal shelter. Next we discussed whether we would do secret santa or not and we decided to do it again this year. We discussed where we would hold our December meeting and what kind of food we should have at the Christmas party. Tudor Hall is hosting a Holiday Workshop for all the county 4-Hers. Then we nominated people for the offices of our club. Our next meeting will be held on December 10, 2021. We adjourned the meeting at 8:33. After the meeting, we made recycled jean heart ornaments for the tree that we are decorating for Hospice's Festival of Trees.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report December 10, 2021 Submitted By: Delia V.

The Tudor Hall 4-H Club meeting was called to order at 7:44 on December 10, 2021. Before the meeting we ate some food for our christmas party. Then, Kyle V. said the Pledge of Allegiance and Herbie M. said the 4-H pledge. The minutes were read by Delia V. The treasurer's report was read by Trent V. Phoebe-Tate A., our vice president, reminded us to work on our record books because they are due at the end of the year.

Under old business we discussed our nominations for our officers next year that we made at the last meeting. Trent and Emily discussed the community service project that they headed up for the Tri County Animal Shelter. We collected a lot of items for them! Our club is also holding the Countdown to Christmas with building blocks challenges. Applications are now being accepted for senior 4-Hers to serve as Maryland 4-H Delegates for the 2022 4-H Leadership Conferences.

Under new business we discussed our holiday workshop. Then, we had our officers explain their jobs and our club voted for new officers. Before we vote each person running gives a speech about why they are the best fit for this job. Our new officers for the 2022 year are going to be Phoebe-Tate A. as president, Trent V. as vice president, Matthew V. as secretary, Delia V. as Treasurer, W. A. as the reporter, Maggie R. as our historian and Kyle V. as our sergeant of arms. The meeting was adjourned at 8:23 p.m. After the meeting we exchanged gifts for secret santa. We discussed our next meeting to be on January 21, 2022. We hope to get some new members as we approach the new year