

CATHERINE RAUSCHENBERG 4-H SCHOLARSHIP RULES AND PROCEDURES

I. RULES

The CATHERINE RAUSCHENBERG 4-H SCHOLARSHIP may only be awarded to someone who:

- 1) a. has been a member of any recognized Carroll County 4-H Club
 - b. has carried a 4-H Rabbit Project and has successfully completed that project for the three consecutive years preceding high school graduation
- 2) Is a graduating senior planning to attend an accredited 2 or 4 year college or technical school or is currently enrolled.
- 3) Has shown rabbits at the Carroll County 4-H Fair.

No one may win this scholarship more than three (3) times.

The number of scholarships to be awarded, if any, and their amounts (not to exceed $500.00 each) will be determined by the availability of funds.

The scholarship check will be issued upon receipt of proof of the candidate's attendance at college or technical school.

No discrimination will be made due to race, color, national origin, sex, or handicap.

II. PROCEDURES

- A. The Selection Committee will be appointed by the President of the Carroll County Rabbit & Cavy Breeders Association, Inc. This committee will consist of a minimum of three members with no conflict of interest. The Selection Committee's recommendation will be presented at the July meeting of the Carroll County Rabbit & Cavy Breeders Association, Inc. and then voted on by the membership in attendance who have no relationship to the applicant.
- B. The Selection Committee may decide not to award a scholarship if it deems no applicant is worthy.
- C. Candidates must furnish a transcript of their high school grades. College or technical school students who have previously applied and provided a high school transcript only need to send a copy of their current college or technical school grades to date.
- D. Candidates may be interviewed at the discretion of the Selection Committee. Selection will be based on 4-H participation and accomplishments, financial need, and high school/college/technical school grades.
- E. The Catherine Rauschenburg 4-H Scholarship will be presented at the Rabbit Department Awards Ceremony at the Carroll County 4-H & FFA Fair.
