SPECIE LEADER: These volunteers will assist in gathering livestock from the stalling areas and returning them after each round. This job may require you to leave your team prior to the start of the contest. Thus, if you have multiple coaches or chaperones, we ask that you have them sign-up to assist. Each team should have one coach/chaperone stay with their team until the start of the contest. If you cannot assist prior to the start of the contest, but are willing to assist after the contest is under way, please identify.
