REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report January 20, 2023 Submitted By: Levi Vallandingham

Tudor Hall 4-H Club had their meeting on January 20th, 2023 at the Fairgrounds. We started by making Valentine cards for our friends and family. Then Delia Vallandingham showed us how to make sock "cupcakes". Our Junior Leaders, Trent Vallandingham, Mia Young, Delia Vallandingham, Kyle Russell and Jessica Graves assisted us in making the sock cupcakes so we can donate them to Discovery Commons Assisted Living Center for Valentine's Day.

Our roll call question was, "What is your favorite 4-H project? The Treasurer's report was read by Delia Vallandingham and was accepted by Kyle Williams. We then had the following members give illustrated talks: Kyle Williams "My Breeding Doe" and "My Market Goat", Susannah Wathen "Embroidery", Chloe Williams "Tips for Success with your Goat Giving Birth", Mia Young "Issues with your Goat Giving Birth" and Leroy & Ernest Kershaw "Chocolate Chip Cookies".

Under Old Business, Trent Vallandingham, asked who had attended the Officer's Training and Steer Weigh in. The members who attended talked about their experiences at both events.

Under New Business, we discussed the leaders meeting, the horse interest meeting on 1/23, our 2022 Friend of 4-H, the ongoing livestock knowledge workshops, the county livestock skillathon on 2/18, teen leaders meetings and the MD 4-H ACTS event on 2/20. The county 4-H Banquet is on 3/18. We had the following members volunteer to help at the banquet: Blessing - James Manning, Pledge of Allegiance - Willow Goddard, Adalyn Hayden, Evan Hancock, Ella Hancock & Emmalee Hancock, 4-H Pledge - Susannah Wathen & Levi Vallandingham, Greeter - Kyle VanRyswick, Kyle Williams & Kyle Russell, Door Prizes - Chloe Williams & Sam Wathen, Emcee - Delia Vallandingham, Mia Young & Trent Vallandingham, 50/50 - Jessica Graves, Trent Vallandingham & Sam Wathen and Setup - Sam Wathen, Kyle Williams, Chloe Williams & Mia Young. Kyle Russell volunteered to Chair the Banquet Door Prize Committee for our club. We also voted to do the pansy centerpiece fundraiser again at the Banquet and will be donating the money to help with scholarships for members to go to 4-H Overnight Camp. Delia Vallandingham asked the club if they would be interested in organizing a county 4-H roller skating event. Everyone thought that was a good idea!

Thank you to Leroy & Ernest Kershaw for bringing snacks and drinks!

Our next meeting will be 2/17 at 6:30pm at the Fairgrounds. Mia Young, Kyle & Chloe Williams volunteered to bring snacks and Kyle Russell volunteered to bring drinks for the next meeting.
