

Maryland 4-H State Hippology Contest Procedures & Regulations

Objectives of the Hippology Contest

The primary objective of the Maryland 4-H Hippology Contest is to provide an opportunity for youth enrolled in 4-H to demonstrate the breadth of their knowledge and understanding of equine science and management in a competitive setting where attitudes of friendliness and fairness prevail. The practical application of the contestants' knowledge and skills is emphasized. These contests should provide an educational experience for participants and spectators as well as an opportunity for the creation of new friendships.

5. There is no limit to the number of individuals that each UME Unit may enter in this contest. Only registered 4-H members may participate in the contest. Individuals participating in the statewide contest must be enrolled as a Maryland 4-H member for 2023 in 4-H Online by May 15, 2023. All contest participants must be registered for the event in 4-H Online by May 15, 2023. 4-H members not registered by the deadline will not be allowed to participate in the contest. Counties will be invoiced for entry fees based on the total number of registered participants from their programs.

6. Contestants must request accommodation for participation in advance, when they register for the contest. Contestants requesting accommodation will be contacted by a Contest Manager to discuss reasonable accommodation. Accommodation requests cannot be accepted or modified on the day of the contest.
7. Statewide competition will be governed by the prescribed procedures and regulations. Additional rules may be promulgated for specific purposes. Contestants not complying with the rules will be disqualified. Coaches and/or spectators not complying with the applicable Procedures and Regulations will be dismissed from the contest area.

Contestants and Eligibility

1. All Contestants must be enrolled in 4-H online by the contest entry deadline and approved by the 4-H Extension Educator of their respective UME unit.
2. Maryland 4-H members must be between the ages of 8 - 18 as of January 1 of the current year. Juniors are ages 8 - 10; Intermediates are ages 11 - 13; and Seniors are ages 14 - 18.
3. Contestants must not have previously competed in the Hippology contest at Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup or Western National 4-H Horse Roundup.
4. Senior contestants receiving college or vocational training beyond high school in areas relative to horses are restricted from competing in the Maryland 4-H Hippology Contest.
5. Attire: Recommended judging attire should consist of slacks or jeans, shirt with a collar and a lightweight jacket or vest if needed due to weather conditions. Hard-soled, closed-toed boots or shoes are required for safety. Articles of clothing that identify the contestant's 4-H county/city may not be worn. Contestants should be prepared for being outdoors in inclement weather. For safety reasons, umbrellas and rain ponchos will not be allowed near the judging ring if it rains.
6. Contestants shall not talk with anyone other than a contest official during the contest. No cell phones or electronic devices are permitted during any phase of the contest. Contestants will be under the direct supervision of the group leader at all times.

Liability Release and Informed Consent

Participation in this event requires the 4-H member and his/her parent/guardian to agree to the terms and conditions of the Maryland 4-H Event Liability Release and Informed Consent Agreement. The agreement will be signed electronically when the contestant registers for the event in 4-H Online.

Judges

1. Official judges shall place the class while the contestants are judging, make the official placing, indicate the cuts to be made, and file the official card with the Contest Supt.
2. When the contestant has concluded their reasons and answered any questions, the judge will write their reason score on the contestants placing card and turn it in for tabulation.

Contest Procedures

1. The Examination Phase of the contest will include the following:
 - a. A Written Exam
