Anne Arundel County Achievement Night
Awards Nomination Forms 2015

* New For This Year! *

Achievement Night should be an event that is anticipated by 4-Hers and their families county-wide. To make this night and the awards more special for everyone, there will be fewer awards no duplicate recognitions.

Outstanding 4-H Members and Volunteers will be nominated from each club. Multiple nominations and nominations from 4-H members and volunteers are encouraged. Only one candidate from all club submissions will be selected for recognition at the county level.

The Awards Committee reserves the right to leave Awards unfilled if a suitable candidate is not nominated.

The old Points of Light Award will be replaced by the Anne Arundel County Outstanding Service Award, which will recognize the 4-Her who not only participates in service projects, but also takes the lead in developing and running service projects.

Included in this packet:

ARTHUR J. WALLIS MEMORIAL OUTSTANDING 4-H MEMBER AWARD (Senior Award)

OUTSTANDING INTERMEDIATE 4-H MEMBER AWARD

OUTSTANDING JUNIOR 4-H MEMBER AWARD

OUTSTANDING 4-H CLUB VOLUNTEER AWARD

CLUB OF THE YEAR

FRIENDS OF 4-H

SENIOR 4-H COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

INTERMEDIATE 4-H COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

JUNIOR 4-H COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD
The purpose of the Arthur J. Wallis Memorial Outstanding 4-H Member Award is to recognize the diversity and depth of 4-H club work, and the contribution that 4-H work reflects in individual growth and community involvement.

Arthur J. Wallis fostered and helped 4-H members to grow through many varied experiences within the 4-H program. His dedication to helping 4-H members develop their best possible self and learn by doing will be reflected in the award. Always encouraging youth to be practical and realistic, but not afraid to reach for high goals, Arthur J. Wallis was indeed a man who helped to “Make the Best Better.”

This award is in memory of Arthur J. Wallis and dedicated to past and future youth who make the best better through 4-H.

Any Anne Arundel County 4-H Club, which has current enrollments for at least five members and one volunteer leader, may apply for recognition as "Club of the Year." Three awards will be presented, one to the club with 20 or less members, and one to the club with over 20 members, which earn the highest number of points as indicated below. The third award will go to a new club formed this past year. Winners will be announced at 4-H Achievement Night.

1. Completed club Secretary's Book submitted by FEBRUARY 1, 2015. Books indicate that records were maintained in a timely manner. (25 points)

2. Percentage of eligible members re-enrolled. (Maximum 15 points) To be tabulated by the 4-H office.

3. Percentage of club members who submitted a complete record book to the 4-H office by the required date. (Maximum 20 points) To be tabulated by the 4-H office.

4. Percentage of club members who competed in county, district and state events. (Maximum 20 points) To be tabulated by the 4-H office.

5. Completed at least 1 community service project. (15 points)

Project: __________________________ Date(s): __________________________

6. Completed at least 1 club membership drive or promotional event, not held in conjunction with a County or State 4-H event (i.e. a promotional event, exhibit at the Fair or other 4-H public events does not count). (15 points)

Example: promotional setup at Ag-Day

Event: __________________________ Date: __________________________

7. Club Affirmative Action reports submitted in a timely manner. (20 points)

8. Club annual and monthly plans of educational activities and meetings submitted by the required date. (20 points)

Our club would like to be considered for the "Club of the Year" award. To the best of my knowledge, the above information is accurate.
