Saturday, February 21, 10 AM [SF]
Rain Gardens and Techniques
Veronica Cristo and Mimi Miller – MGs
Capture and reuse rainwater on your property with rain gardens and other water saving techniques. You’ll have a lush and diverse landscape while keeping sediment and pollution out of the bay.

Saturday, February 28, 10 AM [TB]
Gardening With Children
Mary Buzz – MG
Grab your kids and tools and head to the garden. Come experience some practical ideas for getting little hands and minds into the garden. Parents, bring your children!

Saturday, March 7, 10 AM [SP]
Propagation
Mimi Miller and Kay Parisi – MGs
Want to expand your garden without the expense of buying new plants? Learn how to start new plants from seed, by division, and cuttings.

Saturday, March 14, 10 AM [TB]
Gardening For Your Community
Veronica Cristo – MG
Plant a row for the hungry, start a community garden, help a farmer harvest or beautify your street. Use your gardening skills to bring Calvert closer to Eden.

Saturday, March 21, 10 AM [SF]
Shade Gardening with Native Plants
Karen Anderson. – MG and MN
Can’t grow pretty plants in the shade? Learn about some native plants that are adapted to shade and add color and texture to your landscape.

Saturday, March 28, 10 AM [SF]
Beauty and the Bay
Deb Berberis – MG and Judy Kay – MG and MN
Come learn about creative D.I.Y. projects that can benefit our Bay and beautify your landscape. How-to and photos of finished results will be shown.

Saturday, April 4, 10 AM [SB]
Oh dear, the Deer
Judy Kay – MG and MN
Is there anything they won’t eat? Yes, a few plants. Learn which ones and why. Native plants will be emphasized.

Saturday, April 11, 10 AM [SP]
Garden for the Butterfly
Deb Berberis and Cindy Malone – MGs
Invite butterflies into your garden by learning about the important plants that provide the food and habitat that will attract them. Lovely photos of sample gardens.

Saturday, May 2, 8 AM until noon
Community Resources Building (CRB)
Plant Sale
Calvert County Master Gardeners
Come learn from our demonstration sessions and purchase from our large selection of flowering and vegetable plants.

Saturday, June 6, 10 AM [SB]
Intro to Floral Design
Veronica Cristo – MG
Bring the garden inside with fresh flowers. We’ll cover a variety of simple designs, then make a rose bowl to take home. Reservations required, but not required. Call 410-555-3662.

Saturday, June 13, 10 AM [SF]
Bugs, Slugs, and Other Garden Thugs
RT West – MG
Learn the basics for managing insects, disease, and other pests in your landscape and vegetable garden. Practical suggestions for how to have a more sustainable landscape without dependence on pesticides.

Saturday, June 20, 10 AM [SB]
Microgreens
Jean McDougall – MG
Smaller than baby greens, grow and use in 10-14 days, delicious in salads, soups, and sandwiches! Like fine dining chefs, grow and use microgreens to enhance the beauty, taste and freshness of your meals.

Saturday, June 27, 10 AM [SF]
Companion Planting
Lucy McGinnis – MG
Learn about mutually beneficial crop relationships; keep insect pests away while attracting beneficial insects: enhance the health of garden soil; have great tasting veggies!

Saturday, August 1, 10 AM [SP]
Kitchen Gardens
Ella Miller and Jennifer Miller – MGs
Also known as a potager. Learn the history and get lovely year round design ideas for this floral, herb, vegetable, and fruit garden.

Saturday, August 8, 10 AM [SP]
Backyard Habitats
Bob Boxwell – MG
A comparison of small scale (backyard) and large scale (nature preserve) habitats in Calvert and how each is created.

Saturday, September 5, 10 AM [CRB]
Identifying Invasive Plants
Carla Porter – MG
Identify invasive plants commonly found growing in landscaped and natural areas. We’ll take a short walk around the CRB. Bring a mobile computing device with WiFi and dress for the weather. Register at 410-555-3662 or 301-855-1150.

Saturday, September 19, 10 AM [SF]
Saving Seeds
Nancy Radcliffe – MG
Learn the art of seed saving and take your gardening knowledge and experience to a higher level. You can save money and preserve plant varieties, too!

Saturday, September 26, 10 AM [SF]
Planting and Designing with Bulbs
Nancy Radcliffe – MG
Learn how to plant, care for, maintain, and force bulbs. Find out which bulbs grow in our climate and each bulb’s blooming season. Make your own bulb bouquet (Limited number).