WEAVER BIRDS SEWING 4-H CLUB

University of Maryland Extension-Prince George's County Office

What is 4-H?
An opportunity for youth to engage in hands-on activities to build life skills. Community service projects have included toiletry kits for the homeless, pillowcases for ConKerr cancer (for kids) and lap quilts for Project Linus as well as Dresses for Haiti.

Why should you join 4-H?
Members progress through the 4-H Sewing Curriculum guides, gaining sewing skills in both hand and machine sewing. Beginners typically make pillowcases, simple garments, and other fiber arts projects. As members progress, they work with zippers and button closures as well as constructing more detailed garments.

How can I join 4-H?
Email the 4-H Club Leader: Katherine Burch at Burchbark1@aol.com

Is there a fee?
$10/year, per child. Members will spend money to purchase the materials and notions for their projects.

Where are the meetings held?
Prince George's County Office/6707 Groveton Drive, Clinton, MD 20735 or Whitehall Baptist Church (Accokeek)

When does the club meet?
The club meets once a month to address club business and participate in hands-on activities.

Who can participate?
Youth ages 5-18 years old are welcomed to join.
