The Chaptico Chargers monthly meeting was held on February 8th, 2013 at the Leonardtown fairgrounds. The meeting was called to order by Gabrielle Cory at 6:30 pm. Pledge Of allegiance: Sam Baden. 4-H pledge: Adam Cory. Roll was called by name. Everyone was there. Adam read the approval of January's minutes.

Old business: Diamond clover reports; read by Gabrielle Cory.

New Business: 2012 Friend of 4-H gift and banquet, Diamond clover 2013, and a March craft.

Announcements - 4-H day in Annapolis February 18, Broiler chick orders due March 4th; 4-H achievement Banquet March 16

Craft: Gabrielle brought in some Valentine’s Day cards. We colored them and then took a picture as a group. The meeting was called to an end at 7:15.

---

The Chaptico Chargers held their monthly meeting for March, on March 8, 2013 at the Leonardtown Fairgrounds. The meeting was called to order by Gabrielle Cory at 6:35 pm. The pledge of allegiance was said by Bridget Cory and the 4-H pledge by Adam Cory. After that Gabrielle Cory called role by name, the following members were present: Sam Baden, Emily Baden, Gabrielle Cory, Adam Cory, Bridget Cory, Hannah Jarboe, Bay Evans, Chris Windsor, and Christopher Richardson. Then the approval of Feb. minutes was read by Adam. Old Business was discussed. The main topic was diamond clover forms. We made sure everyone turned those in. Then New Business was discussed. Some of the topics were 4-H achievement banquet, April meeting activity, and community service projects. These topics were discussed amongst the group but mainly led by Gabrielle. The president’s report, read by Gabrielle was on the 4-H leaders meeting. Then we had an election for vice president. The candidates were Sam Baden, and Chris Windsor. We voted based on their speeches. We will find out who won next meeting. Other announcements were about the 4-H achievement banquet, public speaking contest, and animal science webinar. Wes, our leader, mainly, led those conversations. After that Gabrielle called the meeting to an end at 7:15pm and then we did a craft. Our craft was duct tape flowers and wallets.
The Chaptico Chargers held their April meeting on April 12th at the Leonardtown Fairgrounds. The meeting was called to order at 6:35pm by vice president Sam Baden. Then the 4-H pledge was said by Christopher Windsor. The pledge of allegiance was said by Hannah Jarboe. Role was called, Sam Baden, Adam Cory, Christopher Anderson, Christopher Windsor, and Hannah Jarboe were present. Adam read the approval of March minutes along with the treasure's report. Old business was about the Banquet. Some new business was the record books, demonstrations, community service ideas, and projects. The meeting was called to end at 7:30pm.