Miller Farms Pick-Your-Own Strawberries
Although our cold, wet spring has slowed things down on our local farms, one thing that can never be slowed is our insatiable desire for spring-summer strawberries!

Miller Farms will open up for pick-your-own strawberries the weekend of May 24th! Make sure to check their website or Facebook page for times and field locations.

Urban Farms & Local Butchery Tour
May 7th, 4pm-8pm
Baltimore

This Future Harvest–CASA tour takes participants to three impressive local food establishments within 1.5 miles of each other in the heart of Baltimore. It begins at Strength to Love Farm in the Sandtown neighborhood to see their half-acre hoop house operation. Next, Whitelock Farm in Reservoir Hill, another community farm managed by two Future Harvest CASA Beginner Farmer Training Program graduate farmers. Both farms aim to create local food, build community, educate and create jobs and volunteer opportunities.

Finally, Spike Gjerde’s new Parts & Labor Restaurant and Butchery Shop to hear about his approach to returning maximum value to small-scale growers.

Light snack and local beer tasting included. $15 for members and $30 for non-members. Register

Prince George’s County Kicks Off First Restaurant Week
"Brittney Drakeford, a self-proclaimed foodie who recently bought a house in Prince George’s County, went in search of good food. "Anybody who considers themselves a foodie realizes you have to go out and find good food like this," Drakeford, 26, said as she sampled cuisine during the "Taste of TNI" at Bladensburg High School, which on Friday March 28th staged the kickoff tasting event for Prince George's County's first countywide restaurant week." Don't miss the opportunity to learn from their master compost guru, Benny Erez. $165, includes materials. More information and registration here.

Modern Homesteading Workshop Series: Planning Ahead: Seasonal Integrated Pest and Weed Management
May 25th, 2pm-5:30pm
Accokeek Foundation, Accokeek
By combining robust instruction with service projects, the Modern Homesteading Workshop series teaches participants the skills and practices that can contribute to a more sustainable, self-reliant lifestyle. Reconnect with your community and share the lost arts that (not that long ago) used to be a part of everyday life: food foraging, kitchen gardening, composting, bear wrestling (just kidding), canning and preserving, fermentation, seed saving, and season extension.

Each workshop will begin with a one-hour skills workshop, including walking tours of the farm site, and conclude with hands-on work on the farm that makes a valuable contribution to a healthy,
In case you can't get to any of those other dates, you can soak up some culture and history at the the Marietta House Museum Wine Festival, May 31st, 11am–5pm, where they'll be sampling and selling.

SAVE THE DATE: The 2014 Crop Hop

Saturday, October 25th

The CROP HOP (A Cycling Tour of So. Maryland Farms) is a fundraiser bike tour designed to highlight the connection between farms, fresh food and good health, and to help provide fresh farm foods to low-income families in Southern Maryland.

This year’s ride will tour the rolling hillside and historic farmland of Southern Prince George's County! Details and registration coming soon...
