The Maryland 4-H Teen and Adult Volunteer Forum provides an excellent opportunity for teen and adult volunteers to gain knowledge and skills which will enable them to lead successful 4-H clubs, programs and activities.

Class Topics typically include:

- Teen and Adult Leadership Development
- Robotics
- Animal Sciences
- SET
- Natural Resources
- Youth Development Issues
- Camp Training

The forum is typically held in November prior to the Thanksgiving holiday in Ocean City, Maryland. It is reasonably priced and offers activities for the younger 4-H members so that the entire family can enjoy the weekend.
